The Lives and Homes of London's Most Interesting Inhabitants

27th October 2016 • September Publishing • £16.99 Paperback

THE FIRST EVER OFFICIAL PORTABLE GUIDE TO LONDON'S FAMOUS BLUE PLAQUES

London is home to over 900 Blue Plaques. Unique to Britain, Blue Plaques are much loved historical markers of our rich heritage and the notable characters who have lived on our shores.

Gathered together in this beautifully-produced edition, London's Blue Plaques is a handy, compact guide to the lives and the residences of the city's most interesting inhabitants. With colour illustrations throughout, each listing offers insights into these fascinating figures – the book illuminates the lives of artists, film stars, authors, war heroes, politicians, musicians, scientists and activists as well as noteworthy and curious details about the buildings themselves and the localities within which they are found.

Creative, intellectual, dynamic people have always been drawn to this vast city and its streets continue to hum with history being made.

London's Blue Plaques is a hugely enjoyable reminder - to its inhabitants and visitors alike - just what an inspiring and fertile place it is.

ABOUT ENGLISH HERITAGE

English Heritage is a registered charity that runs the Blue Plaques Scheme. It cares for over 400 historic monuments, buildings and sites – from world famous prehistoric sites to grand medieval castles, from Roman forts on the edges of empire to Cold War bunkers. Through these, English Heritage brings the story of England to life for over 10 million visitors each year. www.english-heritage.org.uk
